

WORKING TOGETHER TO ENSURE A SAFE AND HEALTHY WORKPLACE

Common hazards when working from home

Identify WHS risks in consultation with workers and their representatives.

Poor workstation
set up

Poor working environment

Sedentary
work

Trip/slip hazards

Psychosocial
hazards

Fatigue

Family and domestic violence

Difficulty getting help if needed

WHS laws apply to home-based workplaces just as they do to traditional workplaces like offices

Find out more about working from home at safeworkmonth.swa.gov.au

WORKING TOGETHER TO ENSURE A SAFE AND HEALTHY WORKPLACE

Common control measures to manage the WHS risks of working from home only allow working from home if it can be done safely

hybrid working arrangements

schedule office days for tasks that cannot be done safely from home

Set up and maintain safe workstations

provide fit-for-purpose equipment

communicate
regularly

set manageable
workloads

have fair, transparent policies and procedures

WHS laws apply to home-based workplaces
just as they do to traditional workplaces like offices

Find out more about working
from home at
safeworkmonth.swa.gov.au

