

Risk management in small business

Make sure you have ways for workers to report hazards in the workplace.

swipe to learn more →

Risk management in small business

A small business, with lower risks, might have:

- a whiteboard in a kitchen/common area for workers to write up hazards they identify
- a locked box for making confidential/anonymous reports, or
- a duty manager to report to if a hazard poses an immediate risk

Find out more about risk management at safeworkmonth.swa.gov.au